

Professor D.J. Raski Academic Merit Award

The Professor D.J. Raski Academic Merit Award for the block years 2010 and 2011 is open to all members of the Nematological Society of India below the age of 35 years. The award carries a value of Rs. 4000/- and a gold medal. The award will be given to the best paper presented during the contest, which will be organized by the Nematological Society of India. All those interested in competing for the award are required to send brief abstracts (not exceeding 500 words of their unpublished research papers) to the General Secretary, Nematological Society of India, Division of Nematology, IARI, New Delhi – 110012 not later than 10th October 2011. The papers will be evaluated by preliminary screening committee and only those accepted will be permitted to present the full papers at the Society meeting.

Email General Secretary : anilsirohi@yahoo.com

*Please send an undertaking that the research work being presented is original and has not been published anywhere as yet. Also send a signed bio-data with proof of age.

The following are rules and regulation for the award

1. The award will be given to the best paper presented during the contest at the meeting of the Nematological Society of India. The award can be given in cash or kind (books or any other item helpful in research).
2. All the contestants must be members of the Nematological Society of India and below 35 years of age.
3. The award will be judged by a committee appointed for the purpose and their decision shall be final.
4. In case of more than one author the award shall be shared equally.
5. Receipt of an award shall not exclude Scientist (s) from being considered for a subsequent award but it shall not be given before a lapse of at least one intervening NSI meeting.
6. If the work presented relates to thesis for award of any degree, the concerned student should present the work and not the guide even though he may also be below 35 years of age.
7. The work should have been carried out under Indian conditions and should relate to the work done during preceding two years period.
8. The time for presentation shall be 15 minutes.

Professor H. M. Shah Memorial Award

Professor H. M. Shah Memorial award is open to all the members of the Nematological Society of India. The award, which is to be offered once in two years carries a value of Rs. 5000/- and will be given to the best contributor in the field of Nematology as evidenced by papers published during the preceding five years. All those interested in competing the award will be required to send five copies of a write-up (not exceeding 10 typed pages in double space), five copies of the list of publication along with reprints of these papers published during this period. The entries for consideration of the award must reach to the General Secretary, Nematological Society of India, Division of Nematology, IARI, New Delhi –110012 on or before 10th October 2011.

The following are the rules and regulation for the award:

1. The award will be given to the best cumulative outstanding research contribution during the period of five years preceding the date of consideration of the award (i.e. 1st January 2007 to December 2011). The contribution has to be based on published research papers in scientific journals.
2. The award will be given in cash with necessary citation for 'Best Published Research work done in the field of Nematology in India' during the five years proceeding the year of the award.
3. The contestant or at least one of the contestants (in joint application) must be member(s) of the Nematological Society of India.
4. There could be more than one author in the research contribution but the contestant must be an author in all the papers irrespective of senior or junior position. In case, where two or more authors are common in all the research papers, the award money will be divided equally among all the authors.
5. The receipt of the award by a scientist or a group of scientists shall not exclude them from being considered for the subsequent awards but in order to encourage intensive research activities in the field of Nematology, the award shall not be given to the same scientist or group of scientists, before a lapse of two intervening periods.
6. The work should have been carried out under Indian conditions.
7. The scientist/scientists winning the Award will be required to present their contributions in the Society's meeting.
8. The decision of the judging Committee shall be final.
9. All the formalities for the selection of the awardee (s) will be completed by the General Secretary and the judges well before the next meeting of the Society.

Email General Secretary : anilsirohi@yahoo.com

Address: Dr. Anil Sirohi; General Secretary, NSI, Division of Nematology, IARI, New Delhi 110012

Guidelines for G.I.D' Souza Memorial Award

1) Nature of Award:

Dr. G.I.D'Souza Memorial Award

2) Donor of the Award:

Dr. Gerard S. D'Souza, S/o G.I.D'Souza 530 Cherokee Drive
Morgantown, WV 26508, U.S.A.

3) Value of the Award:

Prize money of the value of Rs. 6000/-in cash including all connected expenses with a Citation and a Memento.

4) Periodicity of the Award:

The award shall be made once in two years

5) Purpose of the Award:

- A. To create incentive for research workers in the field of Nematology to contain losses caused by plant parasitic nematodes.
- B. The Award shall be made for significant basic or applied research leading to result of practical importance in the field of plant Nematology.

6) Administration of the Award:

Nematological Society of India shall have the sole right of selection of the recipient of the Award and of the formulation of rules governing such selections.

7) Eligibility of the Award:

All research workers above the age of 55 years but below 70 years.

8) Procedure for selection of Recipient:

A. Nomination will be invited by the Society for the award from the members of the Executive Committee of the Society.

B. Nominations received will be screened by the General Secretary. and will be finalized by the Executive Committee. If EC member is to be considered for the award, he/she shall not take part in decision making process. After the acceptance of a nomination by majority in the Executive Committee, the award shall be announced.

9) Presentation of the Award:

The Awardee shall deliver a lecture at the biennial symposium/conference organized by the Society and one Page profile of the awardee along with the photograph shall be printed in the journal. Full text of the lecture of the awardee shall also be printed in the journal. The manuscript should not exceed 20 pages (typed in double space).